We know spending time together is the greatest gift, so gather the ohana and head for the cinematic Kohala Coast where we've crafted a world of festive wonder that plays out across sun-kissed landscapes and under starry skies. Evenings come to life with artisan night markets, starlit movie screenings and barefoot dining and dancing to curated music sets. There's no better time than now to start a new holiday tradition.

Be Together

Each holiday celebration at Mauna Lani is a gift of treasured memories.

Savor the Big Island's bounty

The mouthwatering scent of a Hawaiian luau greets you before you arrive at your table, soon to be spread with kalua pig, poi, fresh fish, lomi salmon and tropical fruits. Holiday feasts at Mauna Lani showcase Hawaii's culinary treasures sourced from its sacred land and sea. Delight in an ocean harvest at Halani, authentic tasting menus at CanoeHouse, music-themed dining experiences, and flights of locally brewed beers and Kuleana rum.

Revel in Hawaiian holiday culture

Infuse your holiday with a sense of heritage and adventure. Uncle Danny, the resort's beloved local historian, will orient you to Hawaii Island's colorful culture as you stroll through the property's ancient fishponds filled with silver fish, eel and endangered sea turtle hatchlings reared to return to the wild. The spa offers authentic Hawaiian therapies like the stress-busting Lomi Lomi massage passed down through generations so you can find deep relaxation long before Santa paddles in on his canoe bearing treats for the keiki.

Discover Family adventures and total wellbeing

Fun fitness challenges from tennis tournaments to canoe races add a dose of friendly competition to the holiday season. At the Surf Shack, meet with Kainalu's lifelong watermen and women who will help you sharpen your paddling, surfing and snorkeling skills. Or enlist onsite pros to help you refine your tennis backhand, golf swing or downward dog, while the little ones live it up at the Holo Holo kids' club.
